Question: 20 words

Shall the adoption of the Wasco County Transient Lodging Tax Ordinance be implemented?

Summary: 175 words

This measure refers the adoption of the Wasco County Transient Lodging Tax Ordinance for a public vote. The Ordinance proposes to establish a one percent transient lodging tax. Transient lodging taxes are paid by persons for the privilege of occupying rooms in local hotels, motels, bed and breakfasts, and RV/tent sites in private and public campgrounds. Passage of this measure will not increase income or property taxes. The taxes collected shall be allocated entirely for the retirement of the bonded indebtedness at the Discovery Center, which the County is responsible to pay. The Ordinance shall become null and void upon retirement of the debt, or upon collection of sufficient revenue. If alternate funding is identified, the Board of Commissioners may declare Ordinance null and void prior to the retirement of the full debt. A "yes" vote will approve the adoption of the Ordinance, which will establish the tax. The Ordinance shall become effective upon its approval. A "no" vote will overturn the adoption of the Ordinance and prevent the tax from going into effect.
